

Western Regional Office

GSA Conducts Training in HACCP, GMP in Food Industries for Takoradi Flour Mill Ltd Officers

Mr. Adjetye training the participants

The Takoradi office in collaboration with the Industrial Support Department of GSA, has undertaken a one week training course in Advanced HACCP and Good Manufacturing Practices (GMP) for twelve (12) quality Control officers of the Takoradi Flour Mill Ltd, in Takoradi.

competences of the selected participants as part of the company's strategic human resource development programme for its staff and also importantly, to improve upon the company's food safety management systems aimed at maintaining high quality products.

These are Hard Wheat Flour, Soft Wheat Flour, Semolina, Wheat Bran Powder and Wheat Bran Feed. The training was facilitated by Mr. Emmanuel Adjetye of the Certification Directorate.

The training was aimed at upgrading the skills and

The company currently have four products certify by GSA.

